Pursuant to the order passed by this Court on 07/09/2005 this case was listed again today and Smt. Pooja appeared before us in Chamber. When we asked her as to with whom she would like to go back from the Court, she stated that she would like to go back to her father and not to the petitioner. On being further asked as to whether she was making the statement under any pressure from any source, she stated that she has made the statement without any pressure from any source.

In view of the above statement of Smt. Pooja, she may go back to her father.
